

Vasily conducts Mahler's 8th 'Symphony of a Thousand' at the Royal Albert Hall with the combined forces of his old and new orchestras!

18th October, 2020 - One day visit

£149 per person

Includes: Return rail travel from the Northwest, transfers from Euston to the Royal Albert Hall & back and top price stalls seats for the performance.

As the conclusion to his Mahler Cycle with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and with the combined forces of his 'new' orchestra the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Choir, Vasily will conduct this unique performance of Mahler's "Symphony of a Thousand" at the Royal Albert Hall.

Even by Mahler's standards, his 'Symphony of a Thousand' is a work of immense proportions. A titanic performance of this rarely heard masterpiece awaits you, as the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra is joined by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, eight soloists, three choruses, two children's choirs, an organ and two brass bands.

The performance is at 3pm on the afternoon of Sunday 18th October and we are pleased to be able to offer an exclusive one day visit travelling on the new 'First/Trenitalia' service from Liverpool Lime Street, Runcorn, Chester & Preston (other departure points on request) departing around 9am to London and then transfer by private coach to the Gloucester Road area of Kensington for free time for lunch, before walking the short distance to the Royal Albert Hall for the performance. Our top price seats are in the banked stalls and arena area.

After the performance we will return by coach to Euston for the journey back to the northwest to arrive around 9pm.

As this concert is expected to sell out quickly the initial booking deadline is 31st December so we encourage you to book right away. Full payment is due at the time of booking. If you have to cancel you can do so for £50 up until 31st March. Thereafter the package is non-refundable unless we can resell your place in which case we will just charge a £30 admin fee.
